

Cemetery Plots In The Y and YY Section At Lindenwood Cemetery

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who is eligible to purchase a burial plot in the Temple's Y and YY sections at Lindenwood Cemetery? Temple members in good standing are entitled to purchase a grave or graves in the Cemetery for use by the member or the member's spouse, children, or parents. Purchasing a plot is a benefit of membership and only members may buy a plot.
2. Who may be buried in the plot? Burial in any grave is restricted to the member/purchaser and the member's spouse, children, children's spouses, parents, and unmarried siblings.
3. How much does a plot cost? The price of a plot, including the land and perpetual maintenance, is $2,200.
4. Does the deceased need to be Jewish to be buried in the Temple section? Non-Jews may be buried in the Temple section.
5. Does the deceased need to be a Temple member at the time of death to use the plot? No.
6. Are there other Jewish burial grounds in Fort Wayne? Yes. The Fort Wayne Jewish Cemetery on Decatur Road sells plots and is not affiliated with a congregation. Only Jews may be buried there.

Yahrzeit Plaques at the Temple –

1. Who may purchase a yahrzeit plaque? Temple members and non-members may purchase a yahrzeit plaque in memory of a loved one.
2. How much is a yahrzeit plaque? The price is $500.
3. Where does the money go? Proceeds from yahrzeit plaques go to the Temple's Endowment.
4. When are yahrzeit plaques dedicated? Yahrzeit plaques are dedicated each year during the Shabbat service between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.
5. When are the lights on individual yahrzeit plaques illuminated? On the individual's yahrzeit and on Yom Kippur.