

"THE WANNSEE CONFERENCE AND THE HOLOCAUST 75 YEARS ON"

PROFESSOR MARK ROSEMAN

Indiana University

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28 @ 7 P.M.

UNIVERSITY OF SAINT FRANCIS

BUSINESS CENTER 3RD FLOOR

826 EWING STREET, FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Professor Roseman holds the Pat M Glazer Chair in the Jewish Studies program at Indiana University and is also a professor in the Department of History. He is an historian of modern Europe, with particular interests in the Holocaust and modern Germany. His publications cover a wide range of topics including life-reform and protest in 1920s and 1930s Germany, Holocaust survival and memory, Nazi policy and perpetrators, the social impact of total war, post-1945 German and European reconstruction, generation conflict and youth rebellion, and Jewish and other minorities in modern German history.

Sponsors:

USF Department of English, History, and Political Science,
USF School of Liberal Arts and Sciences,
and USF Student Government Association

For additional information, contact Angie Springer, 260-399-8066 or aspringer@sf.edu.